Grand Ledge, December 5, 1960 — Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. Tuesday at Holihan Funeral Home here for Dian Mae Stinebower, 18, of Grand Ledge, who was killed Friday evening in an accident on the Indiana toll road.

Also killed in the accident was Mrs. Ted Kaminski, 22, of Chicago, formerly of Wacousta, MI.

Gary Twitchell, 19, of Wacousta, was in Community Hospital, LaPorte, Indiana with broken ribs, cuts and bruises received in the two-car crash.

Funeral services will be held Wednesday in Chicago for Mrs. Kaminski.

Toll road police at Osceola, Indiana, said the accident occurred 12 miles east of LaPorte when a car driven by Mrs. Kaminski attempted to pass another west-bound car driven by Andrea Scala, 19, of Oak Park, Illinois.

Officers said Mrs. Kaminski lost control and went onto a blacktop emergency inside lane. She pulled back onto the turnpike and struck the car she was attempting to pass, they said,

Miss Stinebower, who was pronounced dead at the scene, and Mrs. Kaminski were thrown from the car.

They said Miss Stinebower suffered shock and multiple fractures, including broken ribs, a fractured wrist, and upper fractures to both arms.

Mrs. Kaminski, who died en route to the hospital, received a broken neck, fractured skull, and severe cuts to her entire body.

Twitchell, who was riding in the back seat, was thrown to the floor but remained in the car.

The Oak Park driver was not injured, toll road police said.

Mrs. Kaminski, the former Joyce Twitchell, had been visiting a twin sister, Mrs. James (Janet) Eimer of Grand Ledge who recently gave birth to a baby.

Mrs. Kaminski was being returned to Chicago by her brother, Gary, and his fiancée, Miss Stinebower.

Mrs. Kaminski was a 1956 graduate of Grand Ledge High School.

Miss Stinebower, a 1960 Grand Ledge High School graduate, had been employed at the Farm Bureau offices in Lansing since graduation. She was a member of the Order of the Rainbow for Girls and the First Methodist Church of Grand Ledge.

Miss Stinebower is survived by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Stinebower of Grand Ledge; a sister, Suzan; a grandmother, Mrs. Majel Stinebower, also of Grand Ledge, and a step-grandmother, Mrs. Lou Brace of Lansing.
